

Seasonal Coach/Driver

Townloch is the National Training Site (NTS) and the home of Scotland's most advanced waterskiing and wakeboarding coaching activities. It's also the headquarters of Waterski and Wakeboard Scotland (WWS), the Scottish Governing Body for the sports. Situated less than 20 miles from Edinburgh, we are a centre of excellence and pride ourselves in having the best facilities, equipment and coaching in the country with a great community of members, visitors and volunteers.

Delivering excellent waterski and wakeboard experiences is at the heart of what we do – ensuring all our visitors have access to great coaching experiences and have a fantastic time on the water.

We are looking for confident, dynamic, outgoing individuals with a passion for waterskiing and wakeboarding and helping individuals to develop their skills. A love of the outdoors is essential! You'll be working with a friendly team and we are pretty sure that, if you join us, you'll make some lifelong friends (we have a fantastic community of members and visitors) and make some wonderful memories along the way.

If you get a thrill from helping people play hard, train hard and have a great time and have experience of watersports coaching then we would love to hear from you!
